The Australian Chamber of Commerce Greater China (AustCham) is the only officially registered NGO representing Australia-engaged organisations in mainland China.

AustCham’s role is to advocate on behalf of its members, advance commercial relationships across mainland China, and provide timely information about the changing business environment.

AustCham maintains offices and personnel in Beijing, Guangzhou and Chengdu covering the North, South, and West China regions. With this network, AustCham operates the largest non-government organisation advancing the Australian commercial relationship with China.

AustCham partners with Australian, Chinese and global enterprises of all sizes. From startups and SMEs to large multinational corporations. AustCham also works closely with its sister chambers in Shanghai and Hong Kong to deliver value for its members.

Key members of the chamber include ANZ, KPMG, Telstra, Woodside Energy, Westpac, Moelis Australia, Commonwealth Bank, Auswan, Orient Speech Therapy Ltd, Sino Gas & Energy, King & Wood Mallesons and Aidi School.
Beijing Foreign Enterprise Human Resources Service Co. Ltd, (FESCO), founded in 1979, was the first company to provide professional services to foreigners in China.

As one of the Top 500 enterprises in China, FESCO is the primary HR strategic partner for multinational companies in China and is reputed to be the best for competitiveness and brand value in China’s HR service industry. FESCO has established over 120 investment companies and branches across China, and has formed a service network reaching out to 300 cities in 31 provinces and autonomous regions from its two centres in Beijing and Shanghai.

FESCO provides services to over 20,000 customers from across the world, as well as 1,200,000 domestic and overseas employees working for these institutions.
FESCO INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

AustCham has partnered with FESCO, the leading HR services provider in China, to provide the only internship program in China that guarantees a 100% legal intern visa for students.

This program will secure interns a placement in a Top 500 company in China and provide support in terms of accommodation, insurance, and most importantly, a completely legal intern visa.
